

Dr Juliana Siziba obtained her DMD degree in 2017 from Adventist University of the Philippines. She is a young, gentle, patient and caring. She is very passionate about oral health care and strives to help and teach others, as well as promote oral health education.