

The Firm comprises of a team of six qualified legal practitioners who are registered with the High, Supreme & Constitutional Courts of Zimbabwe. The legal practitioners offer substantial all round representations and comprehensive legal services in areas relating to civil and criminal matters, corporate and commercial legal services, labour law and arbitrations, intellectual property, conveyancing and notarial work, family law, mining law, debt collection and foreclosures, human rights and constitutional litigation. The firm's team has some keen and proactive practitioners, who have wide experience and can effectively initiate and defend legal matters from the onset to finalization and up to the appeal stage if necessary. The firm's practice covers a full range of legal solutions that are both complex, novel and the common legal matters.